

Day 2, Sunday, 10/12/08

7:40 AM - Arrive at Heathrow

Passport control

For all passengers not making a connecting flight your first stop is passport control, which will be clearly signposted on your arrival. There are two separate queuing areas - one is for European Union (EU) and British nationals, the other for all other nationalities.

Once at the passport booth an immigration officer will ask to see you passport. You will also need any supporting documentation necessary for your visit. Also, please remember that your passport must not expire during your visit to the UK.

Large queues can develop during busy times but please be patient, as our stringent checks help ensure security for visitors and UK residents alike.

Baggage reclaim

After passport control, follow the arrivals signs to the baggage reclaim area. Look for your flight number on the information screens to find out which carousel you need, and wait for confirmation that it is ready. There may be luggage from more than one flight on each carousel, so please be patient and try not to block access for others.

Trolleys are available in the baggage reclaim area. There are trolley drop-off points in the terminals, car parks and entrances to rail and bus stations.

Baggage handling and delivery is the responsibility of the airlines from the point of check-in to the point of collection. Please contact your airline with any enquiries about your baggage, or if you have left anything on an aircraft or an airline bus.

Some airlines subscribe to a replacement service for baggage which has been damaged in transit. For details please contact your airline.

Customs

Which channel?

Arriving from an EU country

If your journey started in a European Union country (your hold baggage will have a green-edged tag), use the blue exit.

Arriving from outside the EU

If your journey began in a country outside the European Union (your hold luggage will have a white tag), use the red channel if you have goods to declare or the green channel if you don't.
